OPENING WORDS

425

Thus have you prepared the land,
drenching its furrows,
breaking up its clods, softening it
with showers,
blessing its yield.
You have crowned the year with your bounty
and with abundant harvest.
The fallow meadows overflow, the valleys are blanketed with flocks.
They shout and sing for joy!

PSALM 65

Affirmation of Fellowship:

May we be reminded here of our highest aspirations and inspired to bring our gifts of love and service to the altar of humanity. May we know once again that we are not isolated beings but connected in mystery and in miracle, to the universe, to this community and to each other.

Candles of Joys and Concerns

Words for Reflection

488

Hold fast to dreams
for if dreams die
life is a broken-winged bird that cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
for when dreams go
life is a barren field
frozen with snow.

Offertory Response

(to "Old Hundredth")

Please sing along from the comfort of your home

From all that dwell below the skies
Let faith and hope and love arise
Let beauty, truth and good be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

O Hear, My People

Grant us the ability to find joy and strength
not in the strident call to arms, but in stretching out our arms to grasp our fellow creatures in the striving for justice and
