Come, Ye Thankful People

68

$\bullet = 126$

1. Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, raise a song of har-vest home:
 2. All the world is but a field, giv-en for a fruit-ful yield;

fruit and crops are gath-ered in, safe be-fore the wheat and tares to- geth-er sown, here for joy or storms be- gin; God, our Mak-er, will pro- vide

 sor- row grown: first the blade, and then the ear,

for our needs to be sup-plied; come to God's own
 then the full corn shall ap-pear; God of har-vest,

tem-ple, come, raise a song of har-vest home.
 grant that we whole-some grain and pure may be.

Affirmation of Fellowship:

May we be reminded here of our highest aspirations and inspired to bring our gifts of love and service to the altar of humanity. May we know once again that we are not isolated beings but connected in mystery and in miracle, to the universe, to this community and to each other.

Offertory Response

(to "Old Hundredth")

Please sing along from the comfort of your home

From all that dwell below the skies
Let faith and hope and love arise
Let beauty, truth and good be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

 in - vit - ing us to loft - ier height.

4. Thanks be for these, who question why
 who noble motives do obey;
 those who know how to live and die;
 comrades who share this holy way.
5. Thanks be for these, we celebrate;
 sing and rejoice, our trust declare;
 press all our faith into our fate;
 bless now the destiny we share.

⊕ Joyce Timmerman Gilbert, 1936-, © 1992 Unitarian Universalist Association

⊕ Music: Hungarian melody, 16th cent.,

⊕ arr. by Robert L. Sanders, 1906-

Let this flame remain with us, a symbol of the holiness we seek, dispelling the gloom, lighting a path to faith and hope, its radiance calling us to wholeness, casting the light of freedom, justice and peace upon the world.
